I. Introduction

The Self-Study Report (SSR) is the Higher Education Institution's (HEI's) quantitative and qualitative self-assessment of the strengths and limitations of the program being submitted for review. It provides information critical to a thorough on-site review of the program by PCS Information and Computing Accreditation Board - Computing Accreditation Commission (PICAB-CAC). The SSR should explain how the program meets each of the PICAB general criteria, the PICAB program criteria, and the PICAB Policies and Procedures. It is necessary that the SSR address all methods of instructional delivery used by the program, all possible paths that students may take to complete the degree, and all remote offerings available to students in the program.

CAC of PICAB provides a Guide for the preparation of Self-Study Reports (SSRs) to assist the institution in completing the Self-Study Report (SSR). As part of this document, CAC also provides a template for the SSR.

II. Requirements

The program name used on the cover of the SSR shall be identical to that used in the institutional publications, on the PICAB Request for Evaluation (RFE), and on the transcripts of records (TORs) of graduates. This shall ensure that the program is correctly identified in PICAB records and that graduates can be correctly identified as graduating from an accredited program. Normally, each program requires a SSR. While this Guide primarily addresses accreditation criteria, it also addresses certain sections of the PICAB Accreditation Policies and Procedures Manual (PAPPM). While it is desirable that the overall structure of the Template be retained, it is not necessary to preserve notes or pages of instructions related to preparing the SSR

A program may use terminology different from that used in the Guide/Template. If different terminology is used, it is important that the SSR provide notes of explanation to clearly link the terminology in the SSR to terminology used in the Guide/Template.

Tables in the Template may be modified in format to present more clearly the information related to the program. When this is done, it is suggested that a brief explanatory footnote be included about why the table was modified. Rows may be added to or deleted from tables to better accommodate program information.

The educational unit is the administrative unit charged with academic responsibility for the program(s) being reviewed by PICAB-CAC. For example, if a single program is being reviewed, the educational unit may be the department. If more than one program is being reviewed, the educational unit is the administrative unit responsible for the collective group of programs being reviewed by CAC.

III. Supplemental Materials

The following materials shall be supplied in addition to the SSR prior to the Visit:

1. The general institution catalog covering course details and other institutional information applicable at the time of the review.
2. Promotional brochures or literature describing program offerings of the institution.
3. Official academic TORs of recent graduates. The official academic transcript contains a listing of all the courses taken by a graduate, year/semester courses taken, the grades earned, and degree(s) earned. The team chair shall request a specific sampling of transcripts for each program and shall provide a timeframe in which they should be provided to program evaluators. Each academic transcript shall be accompanied by the requirements the program demands of the graduate and accompanied by worksheets that the program uses to show how the graduate has fulfilled such program requirements.
4. All other materials as indicated in the SSR template.

IV. Submission and Distribution of Self-Study Report

1. Submit to the following not later than July 1 of the calendar year of the review.
  - a. To Computing Accreditation Commission, PICAB
    - Submit one SSR including all appendices for each program
    - Submit one set of supplemental materials without the academic transcripts
  - b. To Team Chair by July 1 of the calendar year of the review
    - Submit one SSR including all appendices for each program; and
    - Submit one set of the supplemental material.
  - c. To Team Chair when requested after the team is set
    - A set of transcripts for each program.

NOTE: Prior to submission, address to the Team Chair, institution's preference of submission method for the Self-Study Report.

2. The team chair shall provide instructions and addresses the HEI to submit the SSR and supplemental material directly to each program evaluator and approved observer. Please do not send the SSR to the Program Evaluator until instructed to do so by the Team Chair.
3. When new or updated material becomes available between the submission of the SSR and the date of the on-site review, the program shall provide the updated material to the team members as far in advance as possible or upon the team's arrival for the on-site review. All such material shall also be sent to PICAB-CAC Headquarters.

NOTE: The SSR and supplemental material should be submitted as pdf read-only files on a secured cloud platform. Each SSR and supplemental material shall be self-contained in the medium submitted and shall not include external hyperlinks.

Catalogs that are available only electronically shall be submitted in a pdf read-only format. The catalog shall be the version available at the time the SSR is prepared.

Web-based versions may not be submitted. The submission cannot be a combination of hard copy and electronic file. No email submission is permitted.

V. Confidentiality

The information shall not be disclosed without authorization from the institution concerned, except as part of summary data such that the specific institution shall not be identifiable or except when the documents are already in the public domain.

APPENDICES

Appendix A – Mapping of Course requirements to Suggested Evidence

The HEI should provide a mapping of course requirements to evidence of student outputs using the template provided below.

The following table shows suggested evidence in assessing selected relevant Student Outcomes (SOs) as defined by PICAB for the three (3) programs:

- BSCS (Bachelor of Science in Computer Science);
- BSIS (Bachelor of Science in Information Systems); and
- BSIT (Bachelor of Science in Information Technology).

This table suggests evidence that demonstrates how students achieve the selected relevant student outcomes through various assessments and activities, ensuring that graduates are well-prepared for professional practice in the computing field. For all SOs of the program, the HEI should provide evidence of actual student outputs of at least one (1) course requirement to assess each SO, such as exam papers, project reports and other forms of assessments. For each assessment listed, the HEI should provide evidence of student outputs (graded) of at least three (3) among each of the following:

- Exceptional student output - exceeds expectations
- Satisfactory student output - satisfies basic requirements
- Needs Improvement student output - does not meet basic requirements

Note that there could be several student outcomes that are assessed per course requirement, but for illustration purposes only, particular relevant student outcomes per course requirement have been presented in this table. HEIs are required to choose course requirements and show evidence of how all SOs for the course requirements are being assessed. Additionally, there may be similar course requirements for different courses.
